In 1971, Stellenbosch became the first wine region in South Africa to establish a wine route as an organised network of wineries for visitors. Today the town – with its compelling mix of world class wine and food offerings balanced with history, culture, and spectacular natural beauty – provides a coordinated network of more than 100 wineries, each offering a unique cellar-door experience for the wine lover and visitor. The five sub-routes each has its own wine styles, climates and geographic location.

14  ELGIN VALLEY WINE ROUTE

The vineyards of the Elgin Valley Wine Route benefit from high altitudes and cold winters with abundant rainfall, and southeasterly sea breezes in summer. These elements ensure slow ripening, resulting in wines with purity of fruit, complexity and elegance.

www.elginwine.co.za

The route encompasses 15 wineries, while festivals include Elgin Cool Wine & Country Food and the Elgin Chardonnay Colloquium held annually in October. An exciting development is the Elgin Railway Market with a wine bar, crafts and food stalls.

West Coast

Darling, ‘the flower of the West Coast’, is an hour’s drive from Cape Town. The town and surrounds are the home of vineyard plantings influenced by the nautical conditions of the nearby Atlantic Ocean. Mainly dryland, the plantings yield fruit of huge intensity and flavour, resulting in wonderful wines. Darling is a member of the Biodiversity and Wine Initiative, which aims to minimise the loss of natural habitats and contribute to sustainable wine production through better land-management practices.

SANTAM SWARTLAND WINE- & OLIVE ROUTE

The raw and rugged Swartland – an area of extreme diversity – boasts wide-open horizons. Here, bush vines and trellised vines stand alongside wheat fields and olive groves in an area with many microclimates and soils. Vineyards stretch along the banks of the Berg River and clamber up the rolling hills so typical of this area, and backroad wineries echo the terroir, with communities pursuing individual expression through wine, food, word and art.

WEST COAST WINE ROUTE

The varied West Coast Wine Route covers a wide range of locations, from tucked-away family-run farms to well-known mega-wineries. The route begins in the hills around the village of Trawal in the south, and stretches north along the fertile Olifants River valley with its ideal growing conditions for distinctive wines, to Doring Bay to Lamberts Bay on the West Coast. The beauty of the region, popular with adventurous and active travellers, is enhanced by its down-to-earth and genuine people.
